

PROCLAMATION

Recognition of Police Memorial Wall

They are a lot of concrete and stone,
They are through the city in a row,
They are the police they died, their families, their grief,
They are the ones who died, from teacher to that,
Sometimes they are weary, from fighting the fight,
To pursue the wrong and defend the right,
Of freedom and justice, they bear the full load,
The pain, the sweat, the tears, the blood,
For you, for me, and others in fear,
Salute a "Lawyer," as they ever hear,
If you stand back at their head, just once,
You shall see
The wall we
They are the
They are the
They are the
They are the

Therefore, we the Mayor, City Council and the citizens of Las Vegas do formally recognize the Police Memorial Wall and honor those officers who have sacrificed their lives to protect and serve Southern Nevada.
