

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the citizens of Las Vegas, young and old, in common with all people, are in urgent need of health and better posture and means hereby that may improve their health and posture.

WHEREAS, good posture has much to do with a persons carriage and development and general improvement of health and posture.

WHEREAS, the President of our United States and the Governor of our State of Nevada have proclaimed that Better Posture Week be recognized and made a week so commorated by a Proclamation through a National Act of Congress.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, E. W. Cragin, Mayor of the City of Las Vegas, and by virtue of the authority in me vested, do hereby proclaim the period from May 1 to May 7, 1951 as "Better Posture Week".

It is my urgent request that this week be so honored thereafter following that we should enrich our living with greater inspiration, education and recreation to improve our health and strengthen our bodys. This is particularly true at all times, but more specifically should we feel the responsibility to the prevailing conditions of the world as of now.

On further request that parents, public spirited citizens and all members of your committee give this my proclamation , my loyal and honest support.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Seal of the City of Las Vegas this 4th day of April, 1951.
