

P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS, the privilege of home ownership by every citizen is the basis of American freedom and a stimulant to healthy civic development and sound home rule, and

WHEREAS, a steady and abundant supply of new homes in all price ranges is essential to the continued expansion and growth of Las Vegas, and

WHEREAS, the private Home Builders of Las Vegas have broken all production records to provide an ample supply of good housing, and

WHEREAS, the private home building industry has devoted untiring effort to the sheltering of veterans and their families, and

WHEREAS, the gratifying record of the American merchant builder and the enormous industry which supplies and serves him, and whose products and service he co-ordinates in the production of new homes, has enabled a strong increase in home ownership,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, C. D. BAKER, Mayor of Las Vegas, Nevada do hereby designate the week of September 20th to 27th, 1953, as NATIONAL HOME WEEK, and do hereby urge that the people of this city dedicate this week to a new observation of home building progress in our great city.

I urge this to the end that there shall be full appreciation of home ownership and the American way of life.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Las Vegas to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Las Vegas, Nevada this 10th day of September, 1953.
