

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, today we are fortunate in that all of us, no matter what our age, have many hours in which we are free to pursue whatever activities seem best to us; and

WHEREAS, these leisure hours offer an opportunity for relaxation and refreshment, growth and expansion of our horizons, the development of new interests, the making of new friends, the exchange of ideas and experiences; and

WHEREAS, the good use of this leisure can make us better citizens of our City and our great nation; and

WHEREAS, we are fortunate in the City of Las Vegas to have a diversity of opportunities open to us so that everyone, whether he be interested in sports, hobbies, cultural pursuits, social activities, or volunteer work, can find some activity to meet his interests.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, REED WHIPPLE, Mayor Pro Tem of the City of Las Vegas of Nevada, do hereby proclaim the month of June as

NATIONAL RECREATION MONTH

and urge all the people of the City of Las Vegas, to take this month to discover some new leisure-time activity, to explore the opportunities offered by our City, to the end that all of us may have fuller, richer lives.

DATED this 29th day of May A.D. 1959.

REND WHIPPLE, Mayor Pro Tem

ATTEST:

ROBERT F. BOOS, Acting City Clerk

