WHEREAS, President Dwight D. Eisenhower has proclaimed November 20-26 as FARM-CITY WEEK; and

WHEREAS, Las Vegas and surrounding areas have experienced and continued to enjoy an unprecedented growth in population, with large numbers of people having moved to outlying farms during the last few years; and

WHEREAS, true community spirit is enhanced by every citizen's knowing more of his fellow citizens; and

WHEREAS, it is important that we all get to know one another better and do our best to acquire a sympathetic appreciation of the work and problems of our neighbors; and

WHEREAS, I am confident that FARM-CITY-WEEK will be helpful in promoting good will, good fellowship, better living and progressive development between farmers, industrial workers and businessmen; and

WHEREAS, agriculture, industry, business and the attendant services between the rural and urban area combined makes our country strong and has the effect of establishing an enduring community interest between the City-Country residents,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ORAN GRAGSON, as Mayor of the City of Las Vegas, Nevada, DO HEREBY PROCLAIM the week of November 20-26th as for the City of Las Vegas, and I do call upon all of our citizens to wholeheartedly cooperate in observance of this week.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Seal of the City of Las Vegas, this 19th day of November, 1959.

Oran K. Gragson
