

STATE OF NEVADA
EXECUTIVE CHAMBER
Carson City

A PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNER;

WHEREAS, today we are fortunate in that all of us, no matter what our age, have many hours in which we are free to pursue whatever activities seem best to us; and

WHEREAS, these leisure hours offer an opportunity for relaxation and refreshment, growth and expansion of our horizons, the development of new interests, the making of new friends, the exchange of ideas and experiences; and

WHEREAS, the good use of this leisure can make us better citizens of our city, our state, and our great nation; and

WHEREAS, we are fortunate in the State of Nevada to have a diversity of opportunities open to us so that everyone, whether he be interested in sports, hobbies, cultural pursuits, social activities, or volunteer work, can find some activity to meet his interests.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GRANT SAWYER, Governor of the State of Nevada, do hereby proclaim

June, 1960

NATIONAL RECREATION MONTH

in Nevada, and urge all the people of the State of Nevada to take this month to discover some new leisure-time activity, to explore the opportunities offered by our state, to the end that all of us may have fuller, richer lives.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have here-unto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Nevada to be affixed at the State Capitol in Carson City this thirteenth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty.

Governor
