

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Delphine "Mom" Squires has, for a period of over fifty years, been an outstanding citizen of our community; and

WHEREAS, she has furthered the education of our children by establishing the first Parent Teachers Association in Nevada in the year nineteen hundred and seven; and

WHEREAS, she has been instrumental in organizing the cultural and social life of our community as a charter member of the Mesquite Club and the Order of the Eastern Star, Southgate Chapter, as well as numerous other organizations; and

WHEREAS, she has furthered the spiritual life of our community through active membership in her church and as founder of St. Agnes Guild of Christ Church; and

WHEREAS, she has been an outstanding wife and mother.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ORAN K. GRAGSON, MAYOR, CITY OF LAS VEGAS, do hereby proclaim that Sunday, the eighth day of May, nineteen hundred and sixty, be and the same is hereby proclaimed to be "MOM SQUIRES DAY" in order that we may express our gratitude and respect for the Beloved Mother of our Community.

ORAN K. GRAGSON, MAYOR