"WOMEN'S CRUSADE FOR SEAT BELTS"

WHEREAS, traffic accident injuries, serious and fatal, are reduced more than one-third by the use of seat belts; and

WHEREAS, intensive research has fully demonstrated that seat belts help protect automobile passengers from ejection and reduce the chance of injury from the force of sudden stops or impact;

WHEREAS, the General Federation of Women's Clubs, through its safety division, and the Auto Industries Highway Safety Committee, are conducting the "WOMEN'S CRUSADE FOR SEAT BELTS" with a goal of "A MILLION AND ONE IN 61";

NOW, THEREFORE, I Oran K. Gragson, Mayor of the City of Las Vegas do hereby proclaim the day of Friday the 13th, 1961 as as Seat Belt Day and call upon every citizen to take part in this commendable Crusade to help prevent injuries and save lives by installing and using seat belts at all times.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Las Vegas to be affixed.

ORAN K. GRAGSON, MAYOR
