

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, each year more than 4,000,000 Americans of all ages are killed or severely injured by accidents in the home; and

WHEREAS, these fatalities may frequently be prevented with prompt attention and proper First-Aid treatment; and

WHEREAS, effective First Aid can only be administered if the essential equipment is available; and

WHEREAS, it is the duty of every citizen to contribute to his own and family's safety, by being fully prepared to deal with these home accidents; and

WHEREAS, these emergencies do not wait for the home to be prepared to meet them.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Oran K. Gragson, Mayor of the City of Las Vegas do hereby proclaim the week of October 7, 1962 as "EMERGENCIES DON'T WAIT WEEK" and respectfully urge all citizens of the City of Las Vegas not only to take note of the importance of First Aid practices, but to replenish their supplies with essential items commonly used in First Aid, emergencies, since recognizing and being able to administer First Aid promptly can contribute to the well-being of every citizen of our City and of the Nation, as a whole.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City to be affixed this 11th day of September, 1962.

ORAN K. GRAGSON, MAYOR
