

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the hospitals of Clark County maintain Health Care Services for every person in this community on a round-the-clock basis; and

WHEREAS, these hospitals work with other health agencies in safeguarding the health of our citizens; and

WHEREAS, each member of these hospitals' Staffs contribute in a specific way to the care of patients; and

WHEREAS, truly then the theme of the Hospital Council of Southern Nevada, "Alliance for Health" is apropos and this week commemorates the Humanitarian Service of hospitals throughout the Country;

NOW, THEREFORE, WE, by virtue of the authority vested in us, do hereby proclaim and designate the week of May 8 through May 14, 1966, as "NATIONAL HOSPITAL WEEK" in Southern Nevada and salute its hospitals for their contributions to the Public Welfare and for High Standards of Care, and do urge the citizens of Southern Nevada to take recognition thereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, We have hereunto set our hands, this eighteenth day of April, 1966.

John A. Batchelor, Mayor
Boulder City

William R. Hampton, Mayor
Henderson

Oran K. Gragson, Mayor
Las Vegas

William L. Taylor, Mayor
North Las Vegas

William H. Briare, Chairman
Board of County Commissioners

