

Proclamation

WHEREAS, members of the Credit Women of Las Vegas, the Credit Bureau of Southern Nevada and the Credit Managers Association of Southern Nevada, servicing the City of Las Vegas, including our retail establishments, service organizations and financial institutions, are observing Consumer Credit Week in the true spirit of free American enterprise; and

WHEREAS, these local organizations, in cooperation with the International Consumer Credit Association and the Credit Women International, seek to promote the responsible extension of consumer credit through this observance and its theme, "CREDIT...your passport to progress," and

WHEREAS, the citizens of this community will benefit through the sponsors compliance with the International Consumer Credit Association code of ethics, as well as all Federal, State and Provincial regulations; and

WHEREAS, the granting of consumer credit by our local organizations is a service which depends upon the prudent use of credit and the prompt discharge of credit obligations:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Oran K. Gragson, Mayor of the City of Las Vegas, do hereby proclaim the period of April 19 thru April 24, 1970, as

and urge that all citizens join with me and the sponsoring groups in the promotion and activities of this worthy, annual observance.

Signed this _____ day of April, 1970.
