

Proclamation

WHEREAS, The Las Vegas Symphony Society will present its 1970-1971 Winter Season; and

WHEREAS, each community is made a better place in which to live by its schools, churches, libraries, and civic organizations. All of these agencies work to make living in a community a more valuable, a more rewarding experience. Such an organization is the Las Vegas Symphony Society. The availability of fine music presented by authoritative, professional artists is an advantage of inestimable value to the citizens of Las Vegas; and

WHEREAS, such advantages are made possible through the work and effort of citizens such as the officers and workers of the Las Vegas Symphony Society. It is through their work and the continued support of our citizens that we are able to hear and enjoy the riches of music.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HANK THORNLEY, Mayor Pro Tem of the City of Las Vegas, Nevada, do hereby proclaim the month of October, 1970, as

and do urge the citizens of this City to take recognition thereof and participate therein.

Signed this 15th day of September, 1970.

HANK THORNLEY, Mayor Pro Tem
