

Las Vegas
Proclamation

AMERICAN LEGION BASEBALL
DARLING'S 7-11 VIKINGS DAY

WHEREAS; American Legion Baseball, established in 1926, has assisted young people in learning the true meaning of sportsmanship, citizenship and character; and

WHEREAS; this program is considered the premier organized amateur baseball program outside the college ranks and a foremost contributor of baseball talent to the major league network; and

WHEREAS; from the approximately 50,000 young people who play on Legion teams, no more than 144 are distinguished by going to the final rounds of the eight-team Legion World Series; and

WHEREAS; the DARLING'S 7-11 VIKINGS, in an exciting display of their outstanding ability, were awarded the Silver Medal by placing second in this year's Legion World Series held in Rapid City, South Dakota.

NOW, THEREFORE, WE, the undersigned Mayor and City Councilmen take great pride in proclaiming Wednesday, October 1, 1986 to be: in the City of Las Vegas and join with all our citizens in congratulating you on your success. We commend American Legion Baseball for their worthy program, Darling's 7-11 for their sponsorship of this fine team and add our special thanks to Coach Dick Corbin and Manager Frank Darling. Our community is very proud of you all!
