Proclamation

"WAYNE NEWTON DAY"
March 4, 1988

WHEREAS; Wayne Newton has been a distinguished citizen of our community for the past 30 years; and

WHEREAS; a leading personality in entertainment, Wayne Newton has brought enjoyment to millions of people and has surpassed that certain pinnacle of success towards which many performers all strive to reach -- the respect and admiration of his fellow artists; and

WHEREAS; the citizens of Las Vegas hold Wayne Newton in the highest esteem both as an entertainer and as a humanitarian who, at great personal risk and sacrifice, brought joy to thousands of American servicemen in two trips to Southeast Asia; one to Beirut, Lebanon and in the Persian Gulf during the recent holiday season; and

WHEREAS; it is the desire of the citizens of our community to express their gratitude and deepest appreciation to Wayne Newton for his efforts on behalf of many charitable and civic causes which he supports with his time and talents; now

THEREFORE, we, the undersigned Mayor and Las Vegas City Councilmen do hereby proclaim March 4, 1988 as:

"WAYNE NEWTON DAY"

in Las Vegas and commend Mr. Newton for excellence in representing our community as well as entertaining our troops in the Persian Gulf.
