

MAY 04 1988

Las Vegas Proclamation

"RALPH LEWIS DAY"

May 4, 1988

WHEREAS; the City of Las Vegas wishes to acknowledge those individuals who have been instrumental in the growth and development of our community; and

WHEREAS; Ralph and Goldy Lewis founded Lewis Homes of Nevada in 1962 and, from modest beginnings, this wholly-owned family corporation is known today as one of Southern Nevada's premier home builders; and

WHEREAS; Ralph and Goldy have been blessed with four sons -- Robert, Randall, Roger and Richard -- who are all involved with Lewis Homes and Robert, an active member of our community, heads the Nevada Operations of Lewis Homes and currently serves as President of Southern Nevada Home Builders Association; and

WHEREAS; Ralph and Goldy have supported and contributed generously to the Las Vegas community for over 25 years; and

WHEREAS; in recognition for his concern and dedication to provide quality housing, Ralph Lewis was selected "Builder of the Year" in the January, 1988 issue of Professional Builder Magazine; and

WHEREAS; on May 8, 1988 Ralph Lewis will be inducted into the "National Housing Hall of Fame." This distinction is afforded to very few and we are extremely proud that Ralph's achievements have been recognized by being awarded this prestigious honor; now

THEREFORE, we, the undersigned Mayor and City Councilmen, do hereby proclaim Wednesday, May 4, 1988 as:

"RALPH LEWIS DAY"

in Las Vegas and extend our congratulations and best wishes to Ralph Lewis and his family.

 RON LURIE, Mayor

 BOB NOLEN, Councilman

 STEVE MILLER

 W. WAYNE BUNKER, Councilman

 LE ADAMSEN, Councilman
