

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS; It is the policy and pleasure of the Las Vegas City Council to support efforts on reducing violence and promoting peace throughout Clark County; and

WHEREAS; Clark County Parks and Community Services Neighborhood Justice Center is dedicated to the expansion of mediation services and conflict resolution skills through the operation and promotion of the Neighborhood Justice Center; and

WHEREAS; Clark County has been working towards reducing violence in the community through efforts such as the Parks and Community Services Neighborhood Justice Center, School Peer Mediation, Culture of Peace, Conflict Intervention Team, and the Victim Offenders Reconciliation Programs, as well as through efforts of the Parks and Community Services Gang Intervention Team, Administrative Services Town and Liaison Services Division, and through partnerships with Safe And Drug Free Schools, Clark County School District, City of Las Vegas Department of Leisure Services, North Las Vegas Recreation, and others;

THEREFORE; Schools, businesses, community organizations and citizens of Clark County can unite and show support for peace efforts and celebrate the same throughout Clark County; we hereby proclaim and encourage businesses, community organizations, and the citizens of Clark County to participate in making the community more peaceful through the recognition and promotion of peace efforts. We, the Mayor & Las Vegas City Council hereby proudly recognize

January 17 - 22, 2005

PEACE WEEK 2005

Mayor Oscar B. Goodman

Mayor Pro Tem Gary Reese

Councilman Larry Brown

Councilman Lawrence Weekly

Councilman Michael Mack

Councilwoman Janet Moncrief

Councilman Steve Wolfson

053170