Based on the results of our field and laboratory tests and our observations performed during the post tensioning layout and stressing operations, it is our professional opinion that the referenced items have been constructed in general conformance with the applicable reports and plans.

Representatives of Kleinfelder, Inc. did not supervise or direct contractor activity, nor did Kleinfelder, Inc. alter, amend or change project specifications. This statement of general conformance pertains to only those items inspected, observed and tested by Kleinfelder, Inc. for the subject project during the time period when we were on-site.

The services provided as described in this report include professional opinions and judgements based on the data collected and our field observations. These services have been performed according to generally accepted geotechnical engineering practices that exist in the Las Vegas area at this time. No warranty, express or implied, is provided.

As our client, please recognize that construction monitoring is a technique employed to reduce the risk of problems arising during construction. Provisions of construction testing by the engineer is not insurance, nor does it constitute a warranty or guarantee of any type. Even with diligent construction testing, some latent construction defects may be missed. In all cases, contractors shall retain responsibility for the quality of their work, for adhering to plans and specifications and for repairing defects regardless of when they are found.

This report may be used only by the client and only for the purposes stated, within a reasonable time from its issuance. Land use, site conditions (both on-site and off-site) or other factors may change over time, and additional work may be required with the passage of time. Any party other than the client who wishes to use this report shall notify Kleinfelder of such intended use. Based on the intended use of the report, Kleinfelder may require that additional work be performed and that an updated report be issued. Non-compliance with any of these requirements by the client or anyone else will release Kleinfelder from any liability resulting from the use of this report by any unauthorized party.

We appreciate the opportunity to be of service to you on your project and look forward to offering our services again.

If there are any questions regarding this report, please contact the undersigned at your convenience.

Respectfully submitted,

KLEINFELDER, INC.
