Real Estate and Utilities must receive approval from the Councilman/woman in whose ward the facility will be located along with consent from the Parks/Open Spaces Manager before going forward with the following steps.

The following are guidelines for the application process with the City of Las Vegas, Planning and Development Department for zoning approval for cellular facilities:

- Any structure or collocation will always need zoning approval prior to the issuance of building permits. Therefore, Planning will have to look at plans for the proposed or existing facility.
- Obtaining a lease agreement with the City is a separate process from the zoning approval process. Applicant must obtain approval from Planning Department prior to applying for permits.
- Planning and Development staff must review each facility to determine if it meets the required conditions. These conditions may be found in the Nevada Revised Statutes, Title 19.04.040. For this review, staff requires that the applicant submit a site plan, elevations, and a photo simulation of the facility. There is no fee for this review and no formal application.
- If the facility meets the conditional requirements, it can be administratively approved by Planning and Development staff. An official letter will be sent to applicant, who can then proceed to obtain building permits. If the facility does not meet the requirements, a Special Use Permit will be required. The applicant must file a formal application with a fee to the City and have the item heard at a Planning Commission meeting and a City Council meeting for a public hearing. Once approved by City Council, the applicant may apply for a building permit.
