JUSTIFICATION LETTER- 2006

Halloween Event

Meadows Mall Parking Lot

4300 Meadows Ln. Las Vegas, NV 89107

This letter is in regards to our Temporary Halloween Event. This is the seventh year that we are operating our event in the City of Las Vegas. It features our mobile trailer attraction the Asylum.

The Asylum has operated within City jurisdiction for the last four years at Jones and 95. It was the landlord's suggestion that due to construction on the Jones overpass the event be moved to the Meadows Mall parking lot.

The event only runs 21 days. The selected dates are: September 29,30; October 5-8, 12-15, 19-22, 25-31.

Hours of operation are weekdays 6:30 pm to 10:00 pm, weekends 6:30 pm to 12:00 am.

All days and times are approved by the Mall management company.

Each year we work with several High school groups and at least one charity. Our High School program involves school teams or clubs that volunteer to act in the attraction. A donation is made to that group to assist its program. This has become an important program for these groups with the recently budget cuts in school programs. For some, this has become their largest single fundraiser.

This year we are working with the school's magazine CLASS! to produce an annual fundraising event. Proceeds from our attraction will be donated to the program to nigh of the event.

We also involve at least one children's charity, donating money and tickets to their organization. We have worked with Child Haven, Ronald McDonald House, Boys & Girls Club of Southern Nevada, Nevada Child Seekers, United Way, the Lied's Children's Museum to name a few.

There is no impact to the parking in the shopping center with the number of parking spaces available and our hours of operation . The event is being held here at the request of the Mall management company.
