The Attic Relief: A Benefit for the Community by the Community

The Attic
1025 South Main Street
Las Vegas, NV 89101
702.388.4088
www.atticvintage.com

For Immediate Release: Monday November 14, 2011

Contact: Mayra Politis @ 702.809.5829

On Thursday December 1st, 2011 an evening of music, fashion, food, and friends will be held at The Attic with support of local downtown businesses to achieve many goals that benefit our beloved downtown neighborhood.

Our goals are to gather food, clothing, and other goods for the less fortunate that will be distributed by the local Catholic charities. Also to keep The Attic's doors open and help it remain a cultural staple and example to a neighborhood destroyed by the NV Energy explosion. Lastly to promote and bring awareness to the Downtown and Arts District's small businesses

The evening will include an Arts District Raffle featuring amazing prizes that will be provided by neighboring businesses including Insert Coin(s), Skin City, Casa Don Juan, and many more. A Wonderful Winter Fashion Show by The Attic, which will feature vintage looks and The Attics own boutique label. A fun interactive photo booth with The Attic's funky accessories shot by David Levi. Live performances by Phoreyz and 8bits from The Get Back with many more to be announced. This holiday inspired event will be hosted by Alexandria Zevalking and food will be provided by the Slidin Thru food truck.

Doors open at 6 p.m. with a $5 donation entrance fee or free with gently used winter goods (clothing, blankets, etc.). Raffle tickets are $5 dollars each or three for $10.

Come down and show support for the less fortunate while helping our community through Culture, Caring, and Sharing!
