BACKUP DOCUMENTATION

Submitted at meeting. Copy of Proclamation presented to JULIETTE KIMOTO

Minutes:
 No motion required. A presentation was made.

MAYOR GOODMAN recognized JULIETTE KIMOTO, who, as Mrs. Nevada United States 2006, represents not only Las Vegas, but also the entire State on a national level. MRS. KIMOTO is a fourth generation Nevadan who was raised in Las Vegas. She attended Southern Utah University and earned a degree in elementary education. She is very active in her church and volunteers as a resource mother with Courtney Children's Foundation, providing mother-to-mother support for first-time mothers, pregnant teens and at-risk pregnant women in the community. She does all of this while taking care of her husband KYLE and six children.

MRS. KIMOTO will be representing Nevada this month in the Mrs. United States Pageant that will be held in Las Vegas. The entire Council wishes her the best of luck.

MRS. KIMOTO, was accompanied by her husband and children, accepted the Proclamation and expressed her gratitude.
