Minutes:

MAYOR GOODMAN explained that during the deliberation of the personnel session, CITY ATTORNEY BRAD JERBIC reported his accomplishments and intentions for future plans regarding employment with the City. Because the Council is unable to compromise during the personnel session, COUNCILMAN WEEKLY expressed his observations of CITY ATTORNEY JERBIC and stated that his efforts have produced many useful programs which have been of tremendous assistance to the City. He announced full support of MAYOR GOODMAN'S recommendation of compensation for CITY ATTORNEY JERBIC.

CITY COUNCIL MEETING OF: AUGUST 02, 2006

MAYOR GOODMAN elaborated on the commendable consensus established about CITY ATTORNEY JERBIC and recommended he be granted a merit increase of five percent, making his base salary $170,116.67 effective 7/1/2006. MAYOR GOODMAN also acknowledged that in the past when there was a scarcity of funds, CITY ATTORNEY JERBIC displayed his loyalty to the City by advocating that any bonus or raise earned be directly distributed to his staff. For years, CITY ATTORNEY JERBIC did not receive any increase whatsoever and his current salary is a reflection of how competitive he is among all national City Attorneys.
