PURPOSE/BACKGROUND:

Since the last changes in the City's solid waste regulations in 2004 numerous changes have occurred at State and local levels governing the management of solid waste. This bill takes into account the discrepancies between the City's provisions and these changes, and includes provisions that provide for: (1) updated service rates; (2) additional collection service options for businesses; (3) minimum container requirements except for single-family residences and duplexes; (4) additional collection fees for containers with overflowing waste; (5) relief from discontinuation of service fees; (6) deregulation of rates for the collection of construction and demolition waste and facilitating the recycling of such waste; (7) pilot programs for recycling; and (8) customer service requirements for a franchisees telephone answering system.

RECOMMENDATION:

This bill was held in abeyance to the 9/5/2006 Recommending Committee meeting pursuant to the 7/11/2006 Recommending Committee for review, hearing and recommendation to the City Council for final action.
