

City of Las Vegas
Office of the City Council

Proclamation

WHEREAS; We, the Mayor and Members of the Las Vegas City Council are honored to designate Wednesday, September 6, 2006 as JOSEPH E. THIRIOT Day in the City of Las Vegas in recognition of his many years of outstanding service to our community and in celebration of his 100th Birthday;

WHEREAS; Mr. Joseph E. Thiriot was born in Provo, Utah in 1906 and moved to Nevada at the age of 13; and

WHEREAS; Mr. Thiriot had a long career as an educator. He taught for seven years at Lincoln County High School and 28 years for the Clark County School District at historic Las Vegas High School on Bridger Avenue in downtown Las Vegas; and

WHEREAS; He was a founding member of the Las Vegas Little Theater and helped form the Las Vegas Classroom Teachers Association. He was a mentor and an inspiration to hundreds of students and their families. Last Year, the Joseph E. Thiriot Elementary School was named in his honor. On Saturday, August 19, 2006, dignitaries, family and friends honored Mr. Thiriot for his many years of outstanding community service and celebrated his 100th Birthday.

NOW THEREFORE; We, the Mayor and Members of the Las Vegas City Council, proudly proclaim Wednesday September 6, 2006 as:

JOSEPH E. THIRIOT DAY

(In Recognition of his many years of service to our community and in celebration of his 100th Birthday)

We urge all citizens in the City of Las Vegas to join with us in honor of this special day!

Mayor Oscar B. Goodman

Mayor Pro Tem Gary Reese

Councilman Larry Brown

Councilman Lawrence Weekly

Councilman Steve Wolfson

Councilwoman Lois Tarkanian

Councilman Steven D. Ross

