No motion required. Presentation was made.

COUNCILMAN WOLFSON called forward and recognized MARIA SINGLETON as the Citizen of the Month for October 2006 for her many hours of volunteering, preaching and keeping up on current affairs. Ms. SINGLETON, who was born in Naples, Italy and went to live in Rhode Island at the age of six, has been the prayer coordinator for the National Day of Prayer for the last twelve years. She has been involved in many other ministry venues and will soon be teaching bible study at Child Haven and the prison. In appreciation for all that she has done for the people of this community, COUNCILMAN WOLFSON presented MS. SINGLETON with a bouquet of flowers and a Citizen of the Month plaque and mentioned that CHERYL RUSSO, who is an employee in the Mayor's office, is MS. SINGLETON'S daughter.

MS. SINGLETON expressed her appreciation to the City Council and gave praise, honor and glory to Jesus Christ for allowing her to be the National Coordinator of the National Day of Prayer for the State of Nevada. The City has always supported her efforts, and DAVID RIGGLEMAN, Director of Communications, has always been very gracious about her efforts toward National Day of Prayer. She also thanked Leisure Services staff, which she calls the "God Squad," for all their assistance. Lastly, MS. SINGLETON read a poem titled "Freedoms of Soldiers."
