

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS: Geographic Information Systems Day is a grassroots event that formalizes the practice of geographic information systems to showcase real world applications of this important technology; and
- WHEREAS: there have been widespread and rapid technological advances in hardware, software, mapping and telecommunications related to the GIS industry; and
- WHEREAS: the city of Las Vegas departments of Information Technologies, Leisure Services, Public Works and Planning and Development are committed to promoting GIS awareness, education and technical training by partnering with local schools and other various groups to utilize this technology most appropriately and wisely; and
- WHEREAS: the city of Las Vegas GIS users use the latest technology to help staff make better decisions, produce more sophisticated maps and provide residents with more accurate and useful information; and
- THEREFORE: We, the undersigned mayor and city council in the city of Las Vegas, do hereby take great pride in proclaiming November 15, 2006

Geographic Information Systems Day

In the city of Las Vegas and urge all citizens and employees to join us in celebrating GIS Day and participate in daylong activities.

Mayor Oscar B. Goodman

Mayor Pro Tem Gary Reese

Councilman Larry Brown

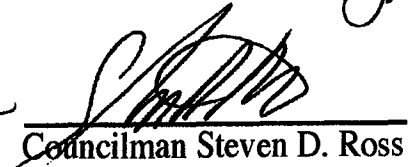

Councilman Lawrence Weekly

Councilman Steve Wolfson

Councilwoman Lois Tarkanian

Councilman Steven D. Ross