On behalf of his family, COUNCILMAN ROSS expressed his appreciation to all his friends at the City and in the community and to all of the lives touched by his mother and father throughout their years for their heartfelt thoughts.

DOROTHY BARNES, Las Vegas resident, asked that her name be removed from programs and that she will not accept bribes.

JERRY ONEAL addressed an issue on Marble Manor public housing and funding. He represents a lady who has a track team and asks for a contact. MAYOR GOODMAN directed MR. ONEAL to contact Leisure Services. COUNCILMAN WEEKLY verified she does not have a 501C3 (Non-Profit). If in fact she qualifies, she would be able to apply for CDBG funds. DEPUTY CITY MANAGER ORLANDO SANCHEZ would be able to help.

MAYOR GOODMAN welcomed NEFRITITI who attends Andre Agassi School and a young man who attends an elementary school.

KEN WOLFSON, Rainbow Studios, LLC, 6440 Skypointe Drive, apologized for not being present for his item. He thanked the City Council for their support of the proposed project.

JOHNNY VENTURA is still looking for funding for the Clark County Chronicle. He again complained about the address numbers on the buildings. He felt that he could do a better job than the city engineers.
