CITY COUNCIL MEETING OF: February 21, 2007

JIM DiFIORE, Manager of Business Services, reported that the applicant met the requirements to be considered for a temporary license. He suggested approval as recommended.

MAREN PARRY, Attorney, 300 South Fourth Street, appeared representing the applicant and showed pictures of The Canyon Club in California and a drawing of the intended building for this location. The restaurant will offer great entertainment in addition to the great menu. She concurred with all the recommendations and thanked staff for all their assistance and graciousness in processing such a voluminous application.
