Dept./Division: Neighborhood Services/Neighborhood Initiatives

PURPOSE/BACKGROUND:
Each year, the Nevada League of Cities and Municipalities (NLC&M) recognizes Nevada's students who have contributed to their community through service activities. Winners are chosen based on their outstanding citizenship, demonstrated leadership, academic achievement, community involvement and participation in school clubs and organizations. To be considered for this awards program, students must be formally nominated by the municipality they represent. Each member city of the NLC&M may nominate students in three categories: junior high, high school, and graduating seniors.

RECOMMENDATION:
Approval of the list of student nominees and forwarding their names to the NLC&M for further consideration.

BACKUP DOCUMENTATION:
1. List of city of Las Vegas nominees for the NLC&M Youth Awards
2. Copies of student award applications
