SUBJECT:

RECOGNITION OF DR. BARBARA JACKSON FOR BEING NAMED PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR OF THE YEAR

Minutes:

No motion required. A presentation was made.

In continuing the celebration of Women's History Month, COUNCILWOMAN TARKANIAN recognized DR. BARBARA JACKSON, Director of Leisure Services, for being named Public Administrator of the Year by the National Forum for Black Public Administrators (NFBPA). She was given this prestigious award for her many years of service to the NFBPA and for her contributions to the community. She is an example of how Las Vegas women have played and continue to play a critical role in every sphere of life.

DR. JACKSON expressed her appreciation to the Councilwoman, directors, and her family and gave credit to her staff for making her job appear easier than it is. She is very passionate about NFBPA for its dedication to promoting public administrators. She gave glory to God for all He has done for her.

Concurrently, COUNCILWOMAN TARKANIAN recognized EUGENE CAMPBELL, Deputy Chief of Las Vegas Fire and Rescue, who also won an award from NFBPA.

DEPUTY CHIEF CAMPBELL was very grateful to be part of the City and a servant of the community. He thanked his family for supporting him in his endeavors, despite the many hours he has to spend away from home.

COUNCILWOMAN TARKANIAN felt proud to have two such distinguished people on staff.
