MAYOR GOODMAN called forward KAREN COYNE, Chief of Detention and Enforcement, to join him in recognizing NANCY CARLIN, Detention Officer, and OSCAR, MS. CARLIN's K-9 partner, as Employees of the Month for April 2007 for their dedication. In October 2006, MS. CARLIN and OSCAR took first place in the Detector Dog Competition at a national police dog seminar and competition. OFFICER CARLIN attended this competition utilizing her own time and funds, saving the City a lot of money. Also, OFFICER CARLIN recently completed a rigorous 10-week course and was certified as a master trainer. The extra training will greatly benefit the City. OFFICER CARLIN and OSCAR work extra long days and weekends to help their division and other agencies.

CHIEF COYNE commented that OFFICER CARLIN has a passion for her work, especially since she met OSCAR four years ago. Together, they have done a great job to maintain facilities. It has been an honor to serve with OFFICER CARLIN.

OFFICER CARLIN said OSCAR, who is six-years-old, came to her from Holland, and he is the best partner she has ever had. She thanked her husband for all his support while she was in training, as well as CHIEF COYNE.
