DEPARTMENT: OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS

DIRECTOR: DAVID RIGGLEMAN

SUBJECT:

RECOGNITION OF HIGH SCHOOL WRESTLING STATE CHAMPIONS

Minutes:

No motion required. A presentation was made.

COUNCILMAN BROWN announced that the sport of wrestling is very challenging and requires intense training, weight control and mental focus, and Las Vegas has gained recognition in the sport. He then recognized the following high school wrestling State of Nevada champions: BRITAIN LONGMIRE and NICHOLAS HARRIS of Cimarron, EDGAR HERNANDEZ of Green Valley, STEVEN HERNANDEZ of Bishop Strittman, JARELL PRICE and ZACH HOCKER of Las Vegas High School, KYLE BARRITT (also named to the 2007 All-American Academic Team for a 4.75 G.P.A.) of Palo Verde and REGGIE POWERS of Mojave. The wrestlers came forward as their names were called, accompanied by their coaches, some of whom spoke individually to thank the Council for recognizing the young men for their hard work. They are a great example to other youth.
