Minutes:

AL GALLEGO, Las Vegas resident, noted that he was a member of the original committee for the naming of the Neonopolis. He suggested the Ward 5 candidate be removed, claiming that he is not a resident of Ward 5.

TOM MCGOWAN, Las Vegas resident, read and submitted his written comments.

JERAMIAH FASSEH, business owner at Bonanza and H Street, said he has been at the location for almost four years and has not yet been able to obtain a liquor license. The Planning Commissioners claim it is because his store is located near two churches, but he has not had any problems in the four years of doing business. There were problems before he took ownership. Without the liquor license, he struggles to remain in business.

JERRY NEAL, representing West Las Vegas, expressed concern about Ward 5 candidate RICKI BARLOW, alleging that MR. BARLOW is a violent person. He also urged that MR. FASSEH be granted a liquor license for his business, as he has been a good neighbor and has the support of the surrounding community.

BEATRICE TURNER, representing West Las Vegas, shared the sentiments of MR. NEAL regarding MR. FASSEH'S ability to sell liquor. She asserted that MR. NEAL had an altercation with MR. BARLOW on election day in May; therefore, she would not be supporting MR. BARLOW. As far as graffiti, she suggested the City go after residents that are selling spray paint at yard sales.

The meeting adjourned at 12:36 p.m.

Respectfully submitted:

Gabriela Portillo-Brenner, Deputy City Clerk
