Minutes:

BEATRICE TURNER, West Las Vegas, stated she was devastated with the election results. The law has now been broken, and people from her community will be demanding the District Attorney investigate just like the investigation of LYNETTE BOGGS-McDONALD. She expressed her disappointment with others who wish to represent Ward 5 without being a resident. She will never recognize RICKI BARLOW as her Council representative.

AL GALLEGO, Las Vegas resident, described a meeting the previous night where that same issue was discussed. He requested that his neighborhood be immediately redistricted to COUNCILMAN REESE. MR. GALLEGO stated that he had no respect for RICKI BARLOW but commended COUNCILWOMAN WILLIAMS for her time representing Ward 5.

TOM McGOWAN, Las Vegas resident, concurred with the statements regarding COUNCILWOMAN WILLIAMS excellent representation of Ward 5. He added that he witnessed 25 persons transported for early vote wearing Barlow shirts and commented that this type of election behavior is very common. CITY CLERK BRIDGES advised that voters may wear election shirts while voting but must leave after voting pursuant to Nevada election law. They may not converse with others or linger at the polling places. COUNCILMAN REESE and COUNCILWOMAN TARKANIAN indicated that they understood election workers should change before voting. MR. McGOWAN read into the record additional comments regarding the Las Vegas Grand Prix and the Springs Preserves, a copy of which is made part of the Final Minutes.
