No motion required. A presentation was made.

COUNCILMAN BROWN called forward GAIL FRASER, Chairman, and BETTY HOLLISTER, Public Information Officer, of the Clark County Regional Flood Control District to recognize July 2007 as Flash Flood Awareness Month, for which a Proclamation was presented to MR. FRASER, in order to raise awareness of the dangers of flash flooding. MR. FRASER thanked MAYOR GOODMAN and COUNCILMAN BROWN for sitting on the Regional Flood Control District, the City's Department of Public Works for assisting in the regional plan and to the Council and KCLV Channel 3 for helping to get the message out to the public.

MS. HOLLISTER said that she and CAROL also came forward, handle public information and public outreach at the Regional Flood Control District, which is currently holding its annual Flood Safety Billboard contest. Two winners will be chosen, one in English and one in Spanish. She encouraged participation in the contest and to be flood safe.
