Re: Appeal of denial of home occupation permit

I am appealing to you to reverse the decision of the Director. The permit was denied because my small business does not fit one criteria of the home occupation permit - #2 - which states there shall be no transacting of business with clients who come to the property.

My business is compiled of preparing individual and business tax returns along with collecting information necessary for filing accurate returns. During the season for filing returns for year-end 2006 the amount of clients visiting the property was approximately twentyfive. This was over a period of about three months or thirteen weeks. This is an average of two a week. I feel this in no way is detrimental to the public health, safety or welfare of my community.

Therefore I request a hearing for consideration of reversing the Director's decision.
