CITY COUNCIL MEETING OF: AUGUST 15, 2007

DEPARTMENT: OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS
DIRECTOR: DAVID RIGGLEMAN

SUBJECT:

RECOGNITION OF ELIZABETH FRETWELL FOR BEING NAMED PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR OF THE YEAR

Minutes:

No motion required. A presentation was made.

MAYOR GOODMAN called forward ELIZABETH FRETWELL, Deputy City Manager, and honored her for being named Public Administrator of the Year by the local chapter of the American Society of Public Administrators. He briefly outlined her history with the City. She was chosen because of her involvement in many City programs, including the U.S. Conference of Mayors, the Regional Public Safety Complex, the Las Vegas Centennial Celebration, the Tennis Channel Open and the new Performance Plus strategic planning program. She also recently completed the Harvard Fellowship program, as well as received her Credentialed Manager designation from the International City Manager Association.

DEPUTY CITY MANAGER FRETWELL thanked the Council for the recognition. She noted that she did not receive the award on her own; it took the effort of the leadership team of the City Manager's Office to make it happen. The team takes the visions and ideas of the Council and tries to make them a reality. She is very pleased to be a part of this team, which has been able to share in some of the successes of the City. She thanked the local chapter of the American Society of Public Administrators for recognizing her as well. She also thanked all City employees for their support.
