PURPOSE/BACKGROUND:

The Project Homeless Connect (formerly known as the Stand Down for the Homeless) is held at Cashman Center every November and is a one stop shop event for homeless individuals and families. Dozens of area service providers provide a plethora of services ranging from medical to housing at this event in order to assist individuals in becoming housed and self sufficient. This year the event will be held Tuesday, November 6, 2007. As a partner, the city of Las Vegas in previous years support the annual event by securing Cashman Center and covering the insurance indemnification. The Nevada Homeless Alliance is responsible for paying the usage fee.

RECOMMENDATION:

Staff recommends approval of contract.

BACKUP DOCUMENTATION:

1. Lease Agreement Between the LVCVA and the City of Las Vegas
