EARL WHITE, representing Downtown Business Development, and DON WALAFORD thanked the Council, CITY MANAGER SELBY and DEPUTY CITY MANAGER SANCHEZ for immediately addressing some of their concerns in the downtown area. MR. WALAFORD noted that the City is the most responsive of all the local jurisdictions.

DAVE WASHINGTON, retiring Las Vegas Fire and Rescue Chief, thanked God for all the blessings he has received, as well as the Council for the opportunities afforded him. He thanked the Council for being passionate about their work and for truly caring for people. He also thanked administration for allowing him to take chances during his management of the department and for its support. He praised the City for the Performance Plus project and for conducting the Diversity Study. After 33 years of service, he is leaving a wonderful organization that has been like family to him. He will miss the many great employees of City Hall.

CHAIRMAN GOODMAN advised CHIEF WASHINGTON that all his colleagues have great admiration and respect for him, for his integrity, achievements and excellent performance. The Chairman said it has been his fortune to have known such a wonderful person and to have gained such a great friend. He thanked him for his many years of service.

SCOTT ADAMS, Operations Officer for the Redevelopment Agency, presented and went over the site plan for the intended BOA bank project that was presented under Items 3 and 4. MEMBER BARLOW said he wanted the site plan shown for the community to see the level of services coming into the area. It will be a beautiful branch, and merely the start of much more to come for the corridor.
