

From the office of the Mayor

Proclamation

Whereas; three important building blocks of great communities are the streets, the neighborhoods, and the people who help make communities special – offering enjoyable, safe and desirable choices for where and how people work and live; and

Whereas; change is constant and affects all cities, towns, suburbs, counties, boroughs, townships, and rural areas. Community planning helps manage this change in a way that provides better choices for how people work and live; and

Whereas; community planning provides an opportunity for all residents to be meaningfully involved in making choices that determine the future of their community and requires public officials and citizens who understand, support, and demand excellence in planning and plan implementation; and

Whereas; the month of October is designated as National Community Planning Month throughout the United States of America and its territories. The American Planning Association, the American Institute of Certified Planners, endorse it as an opportunity to highlight the contributions sound planning and implementation make to the quality of our city ; and

Whereas; the celebration of National Community Planning Month provides an opportunity to publicly recognize the participation and dedication of the members of the City of Las Vegas Planning Commission, the Planning Development Department of the City of Las Vegas, and other citizen planners who have contributed their time and expertise to the improvement of the our great city; now

Therefore; I, THE MAYOR OF THE CITY OF LAS VEGAS, COUNTY OF CLARK, STATE OF NEVADA, HEREBY PROUDLY PROCLAIM OCTOBER, 2007, TO BE:

Community Planning Month
