Minutes:

TOM MCGOWAN, Las Vegas resident, read and submitted his written comments, a copy of which is made a part of the minutes.

ANTHONY HODGES, 123 Sir David Way, commended the Redevelopment Agency members for being responsive to the community's needs. However, he expressed concern about the increased murder rate of women, as well as the increased sexual abuse of children. The United States leads the world in these types of crimes and something has to be done about it. He pointed out that Japan has made great strides in caring for the seniors and families, and they have low murder rates. Perhaps the United States has too many freedoms.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:23 a.m.

Respectfully submitted:

Gabriela Portillo-Brenner, Deputy City Clerk
