Minutes:

CAROL MEYER, Supervisor, Business Services, reported that the desired key employee did not meet the City's definition of suitability, after the background investigation was conducted. However, a letter of support was received from the employers, with whom staff met.

COUNCILMAN WOLFSON noted that the information in the report was not consistent with the information he was given during his briefing, which was only one incident. MS. MEYER indicated that there were also drug convictions.

CITY COUNCIL MEETING OF: NOVEMBER 7, 2007

The appellant requested the Council's reconsideration. Her employer, LORI MASON, 200 Wendy Drive, said that MS. CHOR has been working for her for three years and has ascended to assistant manager, and she would now like to promote her to manager. She is fully aware of her past, and she is not the same woman of years ago. She fully supports her.

MS. MEYER recommended a six-month review, should the Council feel inclined to grant MS. CHOR approval. COUNCILWOMAN TARKANIAN emphasized that there has been a significant change in MS. CHOR.
