Minutes:

COUNCILMAN BARLOW recognized the Doolittle Center Jam Squad Elite VIPs. The program is comprised of young ladies ages four to fifteen that compete on a national, regional and local level, as well as perform at special events throughout Southern Nevada. They have made appearances at numerous functions, such as the Martin Luther King, Jr. Parade, AFL Arena Bowl in 2005 and 2006 and the NBA summer league half time show. This summer they attended the Universal Cheerleaders Association Summer Camp in Phoenix, Arizona where they received many awards and have been invited to attend the Capital One Bowl Game in Florida. He invited the Jam Squad and the director, VICTORIA FRANKLIN, to the podium where the Jam Squad performed a cheer.

MS. FRANKLIN thanked the parents, Mayor and Council, and expressed excitement for her girls.
