CITY COUNCIL MEETING OF: NOVEMBER 21, 2007

DEPARTMENT: OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS
DIRECTOR: DAVID RIGGLEMAN

SUBJECT:
RECOGNITION OF MICHELLE MAURER FOR HEROISM

Minutes:

COUNCILMAN ROSS introduced and recognized MICHELLE MAURER, with the City's top award, the Medal of Honor. MICHELLE is a student at Cadwallader Middle School, who saved the life of a little boy from a Kottweiner. The young victim needed 12 stitches to re-attach his ear. COUNCILMAN ROSS was honored to recognize her and her family; it takes good parents to raise good kids.

MAYOR GOODMAN presented MICHELLE with the Medal of Honor, making her the first civilian to receive this award.
