Protest

To whom it may concern:

I am opposed to SUP-24243 at this location. The last thing this neighborhood needs is yet another business selling alcohol.

Alcohol can be bought at several business's in the area i.e., Huntridge Tavern, 7-11 (two in the area), Circle K, Save A Lot, Maggie's Tavern, The Back Door, several Asian Markets that sell alcohol, Speakeasy (sell liquor), Dotty's and Albertsons all within walking distance of the park and residential neighborhoods.

At one time this location was going to be a culture center for this neighborhood but that has been forgotten. Circle Park is now closed and our neighborhood is being taken over by out of state homeowners who rent to numerous individuals who have nothing better to do than sell drugs and drink alcohol all day.

This neighborhood not only does not need another establishment selling alcohol but a market that will specialize in cheap products.

I can not speak for all my neighbors but I for one take my shopping elsewhere.

I ask the City Planners and City Council to please reconsider this request and vote NO.

Sincerely,

Cindy E Quintero
