Minutes:
DOROTHY BAKER, Las Vegas resident, stated she would like to be able to travel to her hometown. She has received information from home that people already know her business.

RASHAN JOSHUA COLLINS, Las Vegas street preacher, spoke of his recent arrests and referred to NRS 201. He asked what the Mayor is going to do to correct being treated wrongly while he is preaching the Word of God. MAYOR GOODMAN replied that if that is all he is doing, then nobody should be bothering him. If he is actually intimidating somebody or getting in their way, then there can be justification. He was told that on the last incident MR. COLLINS was trespassing on the library's property. MR. COLLINS remarked that this is a Christian country and sin should not be promoted. He quoted PATRICK HENRY and that it is treason, under NRS 196, not to impose these laws. He encouraged the public to review these laws and stop promoting sin.

TEDDY RUSSELL, Las Vegas resident, wished everyone an exceptionally prosperous, healthy and happy New Year. He has a great deal of gratitude for those involved with the State of the City events; the ship of Las Vegas continues to sail on. The REI project is a go and suggested those involved check with the government of Dubai for contributing funds.

Meeting adjourned at 4:09 p.m.
