No motion required. A presentation was made.

MAYOR GOODMAN called forward GREG GAMMON, Chief of Las Vegas Fire and Rescue, to recognize JASON ROELLER, Communications Specialist, as February's Employee of the Month for inputting a global positioning system, a valuable tool for his colleagues to do the work more efficiently and to help locate people who may need assistance. Response times have been cut substantially, because dispatch receives and provides more exact locations.

CHIEF GAMMON said it made him very proud for one of the employees to be honored and recognized. He commended MR. ROELLER on his work noting that the reduced response times attained through the global positioning system will save lives in many cases.

MR. ROELLER, who was joined by his wife, expressed his appreciation to PATRICIA SEPICH for nominating him and to those that sponsored the award.
