MAYOR GOODMAN recognized April 2008 to be Chamber Music Month and called forward RAJA RAHMEN, Director of the Las Vegas Chamber Concerts, to receive the proclamation. The Mayor announced that the Las Vegas Chamber Concerts was founded in 2007 to provide chamber music to the local residents and to encourage collaboration between classical music stars and local music students, so that gifted young artists have the opportunity to grow into great performers. The group has also developed the first chamber concert series for April, which he encouraged everyone to attend.

MR. RAHMEN gave information on the scheduled concerts, noting that the first would include a performance by CLINT HOLMES and that children would always be included as well. He said it was a pleasure to be able to enhance the Las Vegas culture.
