CHAIRMAN GOODMAN remarked that he had the opportunity to visit the City's booth at the ICSC conference, and he asked many of the attendees if they patronize businesses within the City. The majority replied with names of businesses located outside of the City boundaries, which really bothered him. He asked CITY ATTORNEY JERBIC if the City could protect the valuable name of Las Vegas, to which only the City has a right. He wondered if the City could enjoin businesses and residents outside of the City boundaries from using the Las Vegas name.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:20 a.m.

Respectfully submitted:

Gabriela Portillo-Brenner, Deputy City Clerk
