MAYOR GOODMAN called forward CHARLES DESIDERIO and MAJOR WILLIAM RAIHL of the Salvation Army. The Mayor announced that the Salvation Army has been doing needed volunteer work in the community since 1935. Without their provision of meals, job training, lodging and after-school programs, Las Vegas would be in a difficult predicament. MAYOR GOODMAN thanked the Salvation Army and proclaimed May 12-18, 2008, to be The Salvation Army Week.

MAJOR RAIHL said that no organization can work alone. The Salvation Army has been successful in providing assistance because of the partnership it has established with the City of Las Vegas and the community.
